

Commencement Date for Australian/New Zealand Standard AS/NZS 3000:2018 Electrical Installations – Wiring Rules

DOC/18/47599 (v1.0)

Pursuant to Clause 8 of the Occupational Licensing (Standards of Electrical Work) Code of Practice 2016; I, Henry Alfred Hodgson, Manager, Electricity Standards and Safety, set the commencement date for the following Australian/New Zealand Standard for the State of Tasmania as the 1st day of January 2019.

The previous edition of this standard is considered to be current until this date.

1. Standard

- a) AS/NZS 3000:2018 Electrical Installations (known as the “Wiring Rules”)

2. Purpose

The above Australian/New Zealand Standard was published on the 26 June 2018.

As significant changes in these editions affects processes and competency of workers, additional time is required for the Administrator of Occupational Licensing (and his agents) as well as the electrical industry to consider the effect of these changes.

3. Exemptions

Applications for exemptions to the commencement date would be considered under the following conditions,

- a. Electrical work commenced prior to the publication date of the new edition of the standard where the project will continue beyond the commencement date;
- b. Electrical work quoted prior to the publication date of the new edition of the standard that has been awarded a contract, and the project may continue beyond the commencement date.
