were purchased, the amount paid or payable for goods or services is taken to be:

(b) if:
   (i) paragraph (a) does not apply; but
   (ii) at the time of the acquisition, goods or services of the kind acquired could have been purchased from another supplier other than by a mixed supply;

Presumption that persons are consumers

If it is alleged in any proceeding under this Schedule, or in any other proceeding in respect of a matter arising under this Schedule, that a person was a consumer in relation to particular goods or services, it is presumed, unless the contrary is established, that the person was a consumer in relation to those goods or services.

the party or other person is taken not to have had reasonable grounds for making the representation, unless evidence is adduced to the contrary.

(b) have the effect of placing on any person an onus of proving that the person who made the representation had reasonable grounds for making the representation.

(4) Subsection (1) does not limit by implication the meaning of a reference in this Schedule to:
(a) a misleading representation; or
(b) a representation that is misleading in a material particular; or
(c) conduct that is misleading or is likely or liable to mislead;
and, in particular, does not imply that a representation that a person makes with respect to any future matter is not misleading merely because the person has reasonable grounds for making the representation.

(3) Without in any way limiting the matters to which the court may have regard for the purpose of determining whether a person (the acquirer) has contravened subsection (1) in connection with the acquisition or possible acquisition of goods or services from another person (the small business supplier), the court may have regard to:

(a) the relative strengths of the bargaining positions of the acquirer and the small business supplier; and

(b) whether, as a result of conduct engaged in by the acquirer, the small business supplier was required to comply with conditions that were not reasonably necessary for the protection of the legitimate interests of the acquirer; and

(c) whether the small business supplier was able to understand any documents relating to the acquisition or possible acquisition of the goods or services; and

(d) whether any undue influence or pressure was exerted on, or any unfair tactics were used against, the small business supplier or a person acting on behalf of the small business supplier by the acquirer or a person acting on behalf of the acquirer in relation to the acquisition or possible acquisition of the goods or services; and
(e) the amount for which, and the circumstances in which, the small business supplier could have supplied identical or equivalent goods or services to a person other than the acquirer; and

(f) the extent to which the acquirer’s conduct towards the small business supplier was consistent with the acquirer’s conduct in similar transactions between the acquirer and other like small business suppliers; and

(g) the requirements of any applicable industry code; and

   (i) the extent to which the acquirer was willing to negotiate the terms and conditions of the contract with the small business supplier; and

   (iv) any conduct that the acquirer or the small business supplier engaged in, in connection with their commercial relationship, after they entered into the contract; and

(k) without limiting paragraph (j), whether the acquirer has a contractual right to vary unilaterally a term or condition of a contract between the acquirer and the small business supplier for the acquisition of the goods or services; and

(l) the extent to which the acquirer and the small business supplier acted in good faith.
(4) A person is not to be taken for the purposes of this section to engage in unconscionable conduct in connection with:
   (a) the supply or possible supply of goods or services to another person; or
   (b) the acquisition or possible acquisition of goods or services from another person;
by reason only that the first-mentioned person institutes legal proceedings in relation to that supply, possible supply, acquisition or possible acquisition or refers to arbitration a dispute or claim in relation to that supply, possible supply, acquisition or possible acquisition.

(5) For the purpose of determining whether a person has contravened subsection (1):
   (a) the court must not have regard to any circumstances that were not reasonably foreseeable at the time of the alleged contravention; and
   (b) the court may have regard to circumstances existing before the commencement of this section but not to conduct engaged in before that commencement.

(6) A reference in this section to the supply or possible supply of goods or services is a reference to the supply or possible supply of goods or services to a person whose acquisition or possible acquisition of the goods or services is or would be for the purpose of trade or commerce.

(7) A reference in this section to the acquisition or possible acquisition of goods or services is a reference to the acquisition or possible acquisition of goods or services by a person whose acquisition or possible acquisition of the goods or services is or would be for the purpose of trade or commerce.

(8) Section 4 applies for the purposes of this section in the same way as it applies for the purposes of Division 1 of Part 3-1.
Part 2-3—Unfair contract terms

23 Unfair terms of consumer contracts

(1) A term of a consumer contract is void if:
   (a) the term is unfair; and
   (b) the contract is a standard form contract.

(2) The contract continues to bind the parties if it is capable of operating without the unfair term.

(3) A consumer contract is a contract for:
   (a) a supply of goods or services; or
   (b) a sale or grant of an interest in land;
   to an individual whose acquisition of the goods, services or interest is wholly or predominantly for personal, domestic or household use or consumption.

24 Meaning of unfair

(1) A term of a consumer contract is unfair if:
   (a) it would cause a significant imbalance in the parties’ rights and obligations arising under the contract; and
   (b) it is not reasonably necessary in order to protect the legitimate interests of the party who would be advantaged by the term; and
   (c) it would cause detriment (whether financial or otherwise) to a party if it were to be applied or relied on.

(2) In determining whether a term of a consumer contract is unfair under subsection (1), a court may take into account such matters as it thinks relevant, but must take into account the following:
   (a) the extent to which the term is transparent;
   (b) the contract as a whole.

(3) A term is transparent if the term is:
   (a) expressed in reasonably plain language; and
   (b) legible; and
   (c) presented clearly; and
(d) readily available to any party affected by the term.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), a term of a consumer contract is presumed not to be reasonably necessary in order to protect the legitimate interests of the party who would be advantaged by the term, unless that party proves otherwise.

25 Examples of unfair terms

(1) Without limiting section 24, the following are examples of the kinds of terms of a consumer contract that may be unfair:

(a) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party (but not another party) to avoid or limit performance of the contract;

(b) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party (but not another party) to terminate the contract;

(c) a term that penalises, or has the effect of penalising, one party (but not another party) for a breach or termination of the contract;

(d) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party (but not another party) to vary the terms of the contract;

(e) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party (but not another party) to renew or not renew the contract;

(f) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party to vary the upfront price payable under the contract without the right of another party to terminate the contract;

(g) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party unilaterally to vary the characteristics of the goods or services to be supplied, or the interest in land to be sold or granted, under the contract;

(h) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party unilaterally to determine whether the contract has been breached or to interpret its meaning;

(i) a term that limits, or has the effect of limiting, one party’s vicarious liability for its agents;

(j) a term that permits, or has the effect of permitting, one party to assign the contract to the detriment of another party without that other party’s consent;

(k) a term that limits, or has the effect of limiting, one party’s right to sue another party;
(l) a term that limits, or has the effect of limiting, the evidence one party can adduce in proceedings relating to the contract;
(m) a term that imposes, or has the effect of imposing, the evidential burden on one party in proceedings relating to the contract;
(n) a term of a kind, or a term that has an effect of a kind, prescribed by the regulations.

(2) Before the Governor-General makes a regulation for the purposes of subsection (1)(n) prescribing a kind of term, or a kind of effect that a term has, the Minister must take into consideration:
(a) the detriment that a term of that kind would cause to consumers; and
(b) the impact on business generally of prescribing that kind of term or effect; and
(c) the public interest.

26 Terms that define main subject matter of consumer contracts etc. are unaffected

(1) Section 23 does not apply to a term of a consumer contract to the extent, but only to the extent, that the term:
(a) defines the main subject matter of the contract; or
(b) sets the upfront price payable under the contract; or
(c) is a term required, or expressly permitted, by a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory.

(2) The upfront price payable under a consumer contract is the consideration that:
(a) is provided, or is to be provided, for the supply, sale or grant under the contract; and
(b) is disclosed at or before the time the contract is entered into; but does not include any other consideration that is contingent on the occurrence or non-occurrence of a particular event.

27 Standard form contracts

(1) If a party to a proceeding alleges that a contract is a standard form contract, it is presumed to be a standard form contract unless another party to the proceeding proves otherwise.
(2) In determining whether a contract is a standard form contract, a court may take into account such matters as it thinks relevant, but must take into account the following:

(a) whether one of the parties has all or most of the bargaining power relating to the transaction;
(b) whether the contract was prepared by one party before any discussion relating to the transaction occurred between the parties;
(c) whether another party was, in effect, required either to accept or reject the terms of the contract (other than the terms referred to in section 26(1)) in the form in which they were presented;
(d) whether another party was given an effective opportunity to negotiate the terms of the contract that were not the terms referred to in section 26(1);
(e) whether the terms of the contract (other than the terms referred to in section 26(1)) take into account the specific characteristics of another party or the particular transaction;
(f) any other matter prescribed by the regulations.

28 Contracts to which this Part does not apply

(1) This Part does not apply to:

(a) a contract of marine salvage or towage; or
(b) a charterparty of a ship; or
(c) a contract for the carriage of goods by ship.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1)(c), the reference in that subsection to a contract for the carriage of goods by ship includes a reference to any contract covered by a sea carriage document within the meaning of the amended Hague Rules referred to in section 7(1) of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act 1991.

(3) This Part does not apply to a contract that is the constitution (within the meaning of section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001) of a company, managed investment scheme or other kind of body.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) A person must not send to another person an invoice or other document that:
    (a) states the amount of a payment, or sets out the charge, for placing, in a publication, an entry or advertisement relating to:
        (i) the other person; or
        (ii) the other person’s profession, business, trade or occupation; and
(b) does not contain a warning statement that complies with the requirements set out in the regulations; unless the person knows, or has reasonable cause to believe, that the other person authorised the placing of the entry or advertisement.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to an entry or advertisement that is placed in a publication published by a person who is:
(a) the publisher of a publication that has an audited circulation of 10,000 copies or more per week, as confirmed by the most recent audit of the publication by a body specified in the regulations; or
(b) a body corporate related to such a publisher; or
(c) the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, or an authority of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or
(d) a person specified in the regulations.

(4) A person:
(a) is not liable to make any payment to another person; and
(b) is entitled to recover by action in a court against another person any payment made by the person to the other person;
in full or part satisfaction of a charge for placing, in a publication, an entry or advertisement, unless the person authorised the placing of the entry or advertisement.

(5) A person is not taken for the purposes of this section to have authorised the placing of the entry or advertisement, unless:
(a) a document authorising the placing of the entry or advertisement has been signed by the person or by another person authorised by him or her; and
(b) a copy of the document has been given to the person before the right to payment of a charge for the placing of the entry or advertisement is asserted; and
(c) the document specifies:
(i) the name and address of the person publishing the entry or advertisement; and
(ii) particulars of the entry or advertisement; and
(iii) the amount of the charge for the placing of the entry or advertisement, or the basis on which the charge is, or is to be, calculated.

(6) In a proceeding against a person in relation to a contravention of this section, the person bears the onus of proving that the person knew or had reasonable cause to believe that the person against whom a right to payment was asserted had authorised the placing of the entry or advertisement.
Division 3—Pyramid schemes

44 Participation in pyramid schemes

(1) A person must not participate in a pyramid scheme.
   Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) A person must not induce, or attempt to induce, another person to participate in a pyramid scheme.
   Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(3) To participate in a pyramid scheme is:
   (a) to establish or promote the scheme (whether alone or together with another person); or
   (b) to take part in the scheme in any capacity (whether or not as an employee or agent of a person who establishes or promotes the scheme, or who otherwise takes part in the scheme).

45 Meaning of pyramid scheme

(1) A pyramid scheme is a scheme with both of the following characteristics:
   (a) to take part in the scheme, some or all new participants must provide, to another participant or participants in the scheme, either of the following (a participation payment):
      (i) a financial or non-financial benefit to, or for the benefit of, the other participant or participants;
      (ii) a financial or non-financial benefit partly to, or for the benefit of, the other participant or participants and partly to, or for the benefit of, other persons;
   (b) the participation payments are entirely or substantially induced by the prospect held out to new participants that they will be entitled, in relation to the introduction to the scheme of further new participants, to be provided with either of the following (a recruitment payment):
      (i) a financial or non-financial benefit to, or for the benefit of, new participants;
(ii) a financial or non-financial benefit partly to, or for the benefit of, new participants and partly to, or for the benefit of, other persons.

(2) A new participant includes a person who has applied, or been invited, to participate in the scheme.

(3) A scheme may be a pyramid scheme:
   (a) no matter who holds out to new participants the prospect of entitlement to recruitment payments; and
   (b) no matter who is to make recruitment payments to new participants; and
   (c) no matter who is to make introductions to the scheme of further new participants.

(4) A scheme may be a pyramid scheme even if it has any or all of the following characteristics:
   (a) the participation payments may (or must) be made after the new participants begin to take part in the scheme;
   (b) making a participation payment is not the only requirement for taking part in the scheme;
   (c) the holding out of the prospect of entitlement to recruitment payments does not give any new participant a legally enforceable right;
   (d) arrangements for the scheme are not recorded in writing (whether entirely or partly);
   (e) the scheme involves the marketing of goods or services (or both).

46 Marketing schemes as pyramid schemes

   (1) To decide, for the purpose of this Schedule, whether a scheme that involves the marketing of goods or services (or both) is a pyramid scheme, a court must have regard to the following matters in working out whether participation payments under the scheme are entirely or substantially induced by the prospect held out to new participants of entitlement to recruitment payments:
       (a) whether the participation payments bear a reasonable relationship to the value of the goods or services that participants are entitled to be supplied with under the scheme (as assessed, if appropriate, by reference to the price of comparable goods or services available elsewhere);
(b) the emphasis given in the promotion of the scheme to the entitlement of participants to the supply of goods or services by comparison with the emphasis given to their entitlement to recruitment payments.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the matters to which the court may have regard in working out whether participation payments are entirely or substantially induced by the prospect held out to new participants of entitlement to recruitment payments.
Division 4—Pricing

47 Multiple pricing

(1) A person must not, in trade or commerce, supply goods if:
   (a) the goods have more than one displayed price; and
   (b) the supply takes place for a price that is not the lower, or lowest, of the displayed prices.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) A displayed price for goods is a price for the goods, or any representation that may reasonably be inferred to be a representation of a price for the goods:
   (a) that is annexed or affixed to, or is written, printed, stamped or located on, or otherwise applied to, the goods or any covering, label, reel or thing used in connection with the goods; or
   (b) that is used in connection with the goods or anything on which the goods are mounted for display or exposed for supply; or
   (c) that is determined on the basis of anything encoded on or in relation to the goods; or
   (d) that is published in relation to the goods in a catalogue available to the public if:
      (i) a time is specified in the catalogue as the time after which the goods will not be sold at that price and that time has not passed; or
      (ii) in any other case—the catalogue may reasonably be regarded as not out-of-date; or
   (e) that is in any other way represented in a manner from which it may reasonably be inferred that the price or representation is applicable to the goods; and includes such a price or representation that is partly obscured by another such price or representation that is written, stamped or located partly over that price or representation.

(3) If:
   (a) a price or representation is included in a catalogue; and
(b) the catalogue is expressed to apply only to goods supplied at a specified location, or in a specified region; the price or representation is taken, for the purposes of subsection (2)(d), not to have been made in relation to supply of the goods at a different location, or in a different region, as the case may be.

(4) Despite subsection (2), a price or representation is not a displayed price for goods if:

(a) the price or representation is wholly obscured by another such price or representation that is written, stamped or located wholly over that price or representation; or

(b) the price or representation:

(i) is expressed as a price per unit of mass, volume, length or other unit of measure; and

(ii) is presented as an alternative means of expressing the price for supply of the goods that is a displayed price for the goods; or

(c) the price or representation is expressed as an amount in a currency other than Australian currency; or

(d) the price or representation is expressed in a way that is unlikely to be interpreted as an amount of Australian currency.

(5) Despite subsection (2), a displayed price for goods that is a displayed price because it has been published in a catalogue or advertisement ceases to be a displayed price for the goods if:

(a) the displayed price is retracted; and

(b) the retraction is published in a manner that has at least a similar circulation or audience as the catalogue or advertisement.

48 Single price to be specified in certain circumstances

(1) A person must not, in trade or commerce, in connection with:

(a) the supply, or possible supply, to another person of goods or services of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption; or

(b) the promotion by any means of the supply to another person, or of the use by another person, of goods or services of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption; make a representation with respect to an amount that, if paid, would constitute a part of the consideration for the supply of the goods or services unless the person also specifies, in a prominent way and as a single figure, the single price for the goods or services.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) A person is not required to include, in the single price for goods, a charge that is payable in relation to sending the goods from the supplier to the other person.

(3) However, if:
   (a) the person does not include in the single price a charge that is payable in relation to sending the goods from the supplier to the other person; and
   (b) the person knows, at the time of the representation, the minimum amount of a charge in relation to sending the goods from the supplier to the other person that must be paid by the other person;
the person must not make the representation referred to in subsection (1) unless the person also specifies that minimum amount.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply if the representation is made exclusively to a body corporate.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (1), the person is taken not to have specified a single price for the goods or services in a prominent way unless the single price is at least as prominent as the most prominent of the parts of the consideration for the supply.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply in relation to services to be supplied under a contract if:
   (a) the contract provides for the supply of the services for the term of the contract; and
   (b) the contract provides for periodic payments for the services to be made during the term of the contract; and
(c) if the contract also provides for the supply of goods—the goods are directly related to the supply of the services.

(7) The single price is the minimum quantifiable consideration for the supply of the goods or services at the time of the representation, including each of the following amounts (if any) that is quantifiable at that time:

(a) a charge of any description payable to the person making the representation by another person (other than a charge that is payable at the option of the other person);

(b) the amount which reflects any tax, duty, fee, levy or charge imposed on the person making the representation in relation to the supply;

(c) any amount paid or payable by the person making the representation in relation to the supply with respect to any tax, duty, fee, levy or charge if:

   (i) the amount is paid or payable under an agreement or arrangement made under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; and

   (ii) the tax, duty, fee, levy or charge would have otherwise been payable by another person in relation to the supply.

Example 1: A person advertises lounge suites for sale. Persons have the option of paying for fabric protection. The fabric protection charge does not form part of the single price because of the exception in paragraph (a).

Example 2: The GST may be an example of an amount covered by paragraph (b).

Example 3: The passenger movement charge imposed under the Passenger Movement Charge Act 1978 may be an example of an amount covered by paragraph (c). Under an arrangement under section 10 of the Passenger Movement Charge Collection Act 1978, airlines may pay an amount equal to the charge that would otherwise be payable by passengers departing Australia.
Division 5—Other unfair practices

49 Referral selling

A person must not, in trade or commerce, induce a consumer to acquire goods or services by representing that the consumer will, after the contract for the acquisition of the goods or services is made, receive a rebate, commission or other benefit in return for:

(a) giving the person the names of prospective customers; or
(b) otherwise assisting the person to supply goods or services to other consumers;

if receipt of the rebate, commission or other benefit is contingent on an event occurring after that contract is made.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this section.

50 Harassment and coercion

(1) A person must not use physical force, or undue harassment or coercion, in connection with:

(a) the supply or possible supply of goods or services; or
(b) the payment for goods or services; or
(c) the sale or grant, or the possible sale or grant, of an interest in land; or
(d) the payment for an interest in land.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) Subsections (1)(c) and (d) do not affect the application of any other provision of Part 2-1 or this Part in relation to the supply or acquisition, or the possible supply or acquisition, of interests in land.
Part 3-2—Consumer transactions

Division 1—Consumer guarantees

Subdivision A—Guarantees relating to the supply of goods

51 Guarantee as to title

(1) If a person (the supplier) supplies goods to a consumer, there is a guarantee that the supplier will have a right to dispose of the property in the goods when that property is to pass to the consumer.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a supply (a supply of limited title) if an intention that the supplier of the goods should transfer only such title as the supplier, or another person, may have:
   (a) appears from the contract for the supply; or
   (b) is to be inferred from the circumstances of that contract.

(3) This section does not apply if the supply is a supply by way of hire or lease.

52 Guarantee as to undisturbed possession

(1) If:
   (a) a person (the supplier) supplies goods to a consumer; and
   (b) the supply is not a supply of limited title;
there is a guarantee that the consumer has the right to undisturbed possession of the goods.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that the consumer’s undisturbed possession of the goods may be lawfully disturbed by a person who is entitled to the benefit of any security, charge or encumbrance disclosed to the consumer before the consumer agreed to the supply.

(3) If:
   (a) a person (the supplier) supplies goods to a consumer; and
   (b) the supply is a supply of limited title;
there is a guarantee that the following persons will not disturb the consumer’s possession of the goods:

(c) the supplier;
(d) if the parties to the contract for the supply intend that the supplier should transfer only such title as another person may have—that other person;
(e) anyone claiming through or under the supplier or that other person (otherwise than under a security, charge or encumbrance disclosed to the consumer before the consumer agreed to the supply).

(4) This section applies to a supply by way of hire or lease only for the period of the hire or lease.

53 Guarantee as to undisclosed securities etc.

(1) If:

(a) a person (the supplier) supplies goods to a consumer; and
(b) the supply is not a supply of limited title;

there is a guarantee that:

(c) the goods are free from any security, charge or encumbrance:
   (i) that was not disclosed to the consumer, in writing, before the consumer agreed to the supply; or
   (ii) that was not created by or with the express consent of the consumer; and

(d) the goods will remain free from such a security, charge or encumbrance until the time when the property in the goods passes to the consumer.

(2) A supplier does not fail to comply with the guarantee only because of the existence of a floating charge over the supplier’s assets unless and until the charge becomes fixed and enforceable by the person to whom the charge is given.

Note: Section 339 of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 affects the meaning of the references in this subsection to a floating charge and a fixed charge.

(3) If:

(a) a person (the supplier) supplies goods to a consumer; and
(b) the supply is a supply of limited title;
there is a guarantee that all securities, charges or encumbrances known to the supplier, and not known to the consumer, were disclosed to the consumer before the consumer agreed to the supply.

(4) This section does not apply if the supply is a supply by way of hire or lease.

54 Guarantee as to acceptable quality

(1) If:
   (a) a person supplies, in trade or commerce, goods to a consumer; and
   (b) the supply does not occur by way of sale by auction;

there is a guarantee that the goods are of acceptable quality.

(2) Goods are of acceptable quality if they are as:
   (a) fit for all the purposes for which goods of that kind are commonly supplied; and
   (b) acceptable in appearance and finish; and
   (c) free from defects; and
   (d) safe; and
   (e) durable;

as a reasonable consumer fully acquainted with the state and condition of the goods (including any hidden defects of the goods), would regard as acceptable having regard to the matters in subsection (3).

(3) The matters for the purposes of subsection (2) are:
   (a) the nature of the goods; and
   (b) the price of the goods (if relevant); and
   (c) any statements made about the goods on any packaging or label on the goods; and
   (d) any representation made about the goods by the supplier or manufacturer of the goods; and
   (e) any other relevant circumstances relating to the supply of the goods.

(4) If:
   (a) goods supplied to a consumer are not of acceptable quality; and
(b) the only reason or reasons why they are not of acceptable quality were specifically drawn to the consumer’s attention before the consumer agreed to the supply; the goods are taken to be of acceptable quality.

(5) If:
(a) goods are displayed for sale or hire; and
(b) the goods would not be of acceptable quality if they were supplied to a consumer;
the reason or reasons why they are not of acceptable quality are taken, for the purposes of subsection (4), to have been specifically drawn to a consumer’s attention if those reasons were disclosed on a written notice that was displayed with the goods and that was transparent.

(6) Goods do not fail to be of acceptable quality if:
(a) the consumer to whom they are supplied causes them to become of unacceptable quality, or fails to take reasonable steps to prevent them from becoming of unacceptable quality; and
(b) they are damaged by abnormal use.

(7) Goods do not fail to be of acceptable quality if:
(a) the consumer acquiring the goods examines them before the consumer agrees to the supply of the goods; and
(b) the examination ought reasonably to have revealed that the goods were not of acceptable quality.

55 Guarantee as to fitness for any disclosed purpose etc.

(1) If:
(a) a person (the supplier) supplies, in trade or commerce, goods to a consumer; and
(b) the supply does not occur by way of sale by auction;
there is a guarantee that the goods are reasonably fit for any disclosed purpose, and for any purpose for which the supplier represents that they are reasonably fit.

(2) A disclosed purpose is a particular purpose (whether or not that purpose is a purpose for which the goods are commonly supplied) for which the goods are being acquired by the consumer and that:
(a) the consumer makes known, expressly or by implication, to:
   (i) the supplier; or
   (ii) a person by whom any prior negotiations or arrangements in relation to the acquisition of the goods were conducted or made; or
(b) the consumer makes known to the manufacturer of the goods either directly or through the supplier or the person referred to in paragraph (a)(ii).

(3) This section does not apply if the circumstances show that the consumer did not rely on, or that it was unreasonable for the consumer to rely on, the skill or judgment of the supplier, the person referred to in subsection (2)(a)(ii) or the manufacturer, as the case may be.

56 Guarantee relating to the supply of goods by description

(1) If:
   (a) a person supplies, in trade or commerce, goods by description to a consumer; and
   (b) the supply does not occur by way of sale by auction;
there is a guarantee that the goods correspond with the description.

(2) A supply of goods is not prevented from being a supply by description only because, having been exposed for sale or hire, they are selected by the consumer.

(3) If goods are supplied by description as well as by reference to a sample or demonstration model, the guarantees in this section and in section 57 both apply.

57 Guarantees relating to the supply of goods by sample or demonstration model

(1) If:
   (a) a person supplies, in trade or commerce, goods to a consumer by reference to a sample or demonstration model; and
   (b) the supply does not occur by way of sale by auction;
there is a guarantee that:
   (c) the goods correspond with the sample or demonstration model in quality, state or condition; and
(d) if the goods are supplied by reference to a sample—the consumer will have a reasonable opportunity to compare the goods with the sample; and
(e) the goods are free from any defect that:
   (i) would not be apparent on reasonable examination of the sample or demonstration model; and
   (ii) would cause the goods not to be of acceptable quality.

(2) If goods are supplied by reference to a sample or demonstration model as well as by description, the guarantees in section 56 and in this section both apply.

58 Guarantee as to repairs and spare parts

(1) If:
   (a) a person supplies, in trade or commerce, goods to a consumer; and
   (b) the supply does not occur by way of sale by auction;

there is a guarantee that the manufacturer of the goods will take reasonable action to ensure that facilities for the repair of the goods, and parts for the goods, are reasonably available for a reasonable period after the goods are supplied.

(2) This section does not apply if the manufacturer took reasonable action to ensure that the consumer would be given written notice, at or before the time when the consumer agrees to the supply of the goods, that:
   (a) facilities for the repair of the goods would not be available or would not be available after a specified period; or
   (b) parts for the goods would not be available or would not be available after a specified period.

59 Guarantee as to express warranties

(1) If:
   (a) a person supplies, in trade or commerce, goods to a consumer; and
   (b) the supply does not occur by way of sale by auction;

there is a guarantee that the manufacturer of the goods will comply with any express warranty given or made by the manufacturer in relation to the goods.
If:
(a) a person supplies, in trade or commerce, goods to a consumer; and
(b) the supply does not occur by way of sale by auction;
there is a guarantee that the supplier will comply with any express warranty given or made by the supplier in relation to the goods.

Subdivision B—Guarantees relating to the supply of services

60 Guarantee as to due care and skill

If a person supplies, in trade or commerce, services to a consumer, there is a guarantee that the services will be rendered with due care and skill.

61 Guarantees as to fitness for a particular purpose etc.

(1) If:
(a) a person (the supplier) supplies, in trade or commerce, services to a consumer; and
(b) the consumer, expressly or by implication, makes known to the supplier any particular purpose for which the services are being acquired by the consumer;
there is a guarantee that the services, and any product resulting from the services, will be reasonably fit for that purpose.

(2) If:
(a) a person (the supplier) supplies, in trade or commerce, services to a consumer; and
(b) the consumer makes known, expressly or by implication, to:
   (i) the supplier; or
   (ii) a person by whom any prior negotiations or arrangements in relation to the acquisition of the services were conducted or made;
the result that the consumer wishes the services to achieve;
there is a guarantee that the services, and any product resulting from the services, will be of such a nature, and quality, state or condition, that they might reasonably be expected to achieve that result.
(3) This section does not apply if the circumstances show that the consumer did not rely on, or that it was unreasonable for the consumer to rely on, the skill or judgment of the supplier.

(4) This section does not apply to a supply of services of a professional nature by a qualified architect or engineer.

62 Guarantee as to reasonable time for supply

If:
(a) a person (the supplier) supplies, in trade or commerce, services to a consumer; and
(b) the time within which the services are to be supplied:
   (i) is not fixed by the contract for the supply of the services; or
   (ii) is not to be determined in a manner agreed to by the consumer and supplier;

there is a guarantee that the services will be supplied within a reasonable time.

63 Services to which this Subdivision does not apply

This Subdivision does not apply to services that are, or are to be, supplied under:
(a) a contract for or in relation to the transportation or storage of goods for the purposes of a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on or engaged in by the person for whom the goods are transported or stored; or
(b) a contract of insurance.

Subdivision C—Guarantees not to be excluded etc. by contract

64 Guarantees not to be excluded etc. by contract

(1) A term of a contract (including a term that is not set out in the contract but is incorporated in the contract by another term of the contract) is void to the extent that the term purports to exclude, restrict or modify, or has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying:
   (a) the application of all or any of the provisions of this Division; or
(b) the exercise of a right conferred by such a provision; or
(c) any liability of a person for a failure to comply with a guarantee that applies under this Division to a supply of goods or services.

(2) A term of a contract is not taken, for the purposes of this section, to exclude, restrict or modify the application of a provision of this Division unless the term does so expressly or is inconsistent with the provision.

64A Limitation of liability for failures to comply with guarantees

(1) A term of a contract for the supply by a person of goods other than goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption is not void under section 64 merely because the term limits the person’s liability for failure to comply with a guarantee (other than a guarantee under section 51, 52 or 53) to one or more of the following:
(a) the replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods;
(b) the repair of the goods;
(c) the payment of the cost of replacing the goods or of acquiring equivalent goods;
(d) the payment of the cost of having the goods repaired.

(2) A term of a contract for the supply by a person of services other than services of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption is not void under section 64 merely because the term limits the person’s liability for failure to comply with a guarantee to:
(a) the supplying of the services again; or
(b) the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.

(3) This section does not apply in relation to a term of a contract if the person to whom the goods or services were supplied establishes that it is not fair or reasonable for the person who supplied the goods or services to rely on that term of the contract.

(4) In determining for the purposes of subsection (3) whether or not reliance on a term of a contract is fair or reasonable, a court is to have regard to all the circumstances of the case, and in particular to the following matters:
(a) the strength of the bargaining positions of the person who supplied the goods or services and the person to whom the goods or services were supplied (the buyer) relative to each other, taking into account, among other things, the availability of equivalent goods or services and suitable alternative sources of supply;
(b) whether the buyer received an inducement to agree to the term or, in agreeing to the term, had an opportunity of acquiring the goods or services or equivalent goods or services from any source of supply under a contract that did not include that term;
(c) whether the buyer knew or ought reasonably to have known of the existence and extent of the term (having regard, among other things, to any custom of the trade and any previous course of dealing between the parties);
(d) in the case of the supply of goods, whether the goods were manufactured, processed or adapted to the special order of the buyer.

Subdivision D—Miscellaneous

65 Application of this Division to supplies of gas, electricity and telecommunications

(1) This Division does not apply to a supply if the supply:
   (a) is a supply of a kind specified in the regulations; and
   (b) is a supply of gas, electricity or a telecommunications service.

(2) A telecommunications service is a service for carrying communications by means of guided or unguided electromagnetic energy or both.

66 Display notices

(1) The Commonwealth Minister may determine, in writing, that persons (the suppliers) who make supplies, or supplies of a specified kind, to which guarantees apply under this Division are required to display, in accordance with the determination, a notice that meets the requirements of the determination.
(2) A supplier who makes a supply to a consumer to which a guarantee applies under this Division, and to which such a determination relates, must ensure that a notice that meets those requirements is, in accordance with the determination:

(a) if the consumer takes delivery of the goods or services at the supplier’s premises—displayed at those premises; or
(b) otherwise—drawn to the consumer’s attention before the consumer agrees to the supply of the goods.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), a determination under that subsection may do all or any of the following:

(a) require the notice to include specified information about the application of all or any of the provisions of this Division and Part 5-4;
(b) specify where the notice must be displayed;
(c) specify how the notice must be drawn to the attention of consumers;
(d) specify requirements as to the form of the notice.

67 Conflict of laws

If:

(a) the proper law of a contract for the supply of goods or services to a consumer would be the law of any part of Australia but for a term of the contract that provides otherwise; or
(b) a contract for the supply of goods or services to a consumer contains a term that purports to substitute, or has the effect of substituting, the following provisions for all or any of the provisions of this Division:

(i) the provisions of the law of a country other than Australia;
(ii) the provisions of the law of a State or a Territory;
the provisions of this Division apply in relation to the supply under the contract despite that term.
68 Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods

The provisions of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, done at Vienna on 11 April 1980, as amended and in force for Australia from time to time, prevail over the provisions of this Division to the extent of any inconsistency.

Division 2—Unsolicited consumer agreements

Subdivision A—Introduction

69 Meaning of unsolicited consumer agreement

(1) An agreement is an unsolicited consumer agreement if:

(a) it is for the supply, in trade or commerce, of goods or services to a consumer; and

(b) it is made as a result of negotiations between a dealer and the consumer:

(i) in each other’s presence at a place other than the business or trade premises of the supplier of the goods or services; or

(ii) by telephone;

whether or not they are the only negotiations that precede the making of the agreement; and

(c) the consumer did not invite the dealer to come to that place, or to make a telephone call, for the purposes of entering into negotiations relating to the supply of those goods or services (whether or not the consumer made such an invitation in relation to a different supply); and

(d) the total price paid or payable by the consumer under the agreement:

(i) is not ascertainable at the time the agreement is made; or

(ii) if it is ascertainable at that time—is more than $100 or such other amount prescribed by the regulations.

(1A) The consumer is not taken, for the purposes of subsection (1)(c), to have invited the dealer to come to that place, or to make a telephone call, merely because the consumer has:

(a) given his or her name or contact details other than for the predominant purpose of entering into negotiations relating to the supply of the goods or services referred to in subsection (1)(c); or

(b) contacted the dealer in connection with an unsuccessful attempt by the dealer to contact the consumer.
(2) An invitation merely to quote a price for a supply is not taken, for the purposes of subsection (1)(c), to be an invitation to enter into negotiations for a supply.

(3) An agreement is also an unsolicited consumer agreement if it is an agreement of a kind that the regulations provide are unsolicited consumer agreements.

(4) However, despite subsections (1) and (3), an agreement is not an unsolicited consumer agreement if it is an agreement of a kind that the regulations provide are not unsolicited consumer agreements.

70 Presumption that agreements are unsolicited consumer agreements

(1) In a proceeding relating to a contravention or possible contravention of this Division (other than a criminal proceeding), an agreement is presumed to be an unsolicited consumer agreement if:
   (a) a party to the proceeding alleges that the agreement is an unsolicited consumer agreement; and
   (b) no other party to the proceeding proves that the agreement is not an unsolicited consumer agreement.

(2) In a proceeding relating to a contravention or possible contravention of this Division (other than a criminal proceeding), it is presumed that a proposed agreement would be an unsolicited consumer agreement if it were made if:
   (a) a party to the proceeding alleges that the proposed agreement would be an unsolicited consumer agreement if it were made; and
   (b) no other party to the proceeding proves that the proposed agreement would not be an unsolicited consumer agreement if it were made.

71 Meaning of dealer

A dealer is a person who, in trade or commerce:
   (a) enters into negotiations with a consumer with a view to making an agreement for the supply of goods or services to the consumer; or
(b) calls on, or telephones, a consumer for the purpose of entering into such negotiations; whether or not that person is, or is to be, the supplier of the goods or services.

72 Meaning of negotiation

A negotiation, in relation to an agreement or a proposed agreement, includes any discussion or dealing directed towards the making of the agreement or proposed agreement (whether or not the terms of the agreement or proposed agreement are open to any discussion or dealing).

Subdivision B—Negotiating unsolicited consumer agreements

73 Permitted hours for negotiating an unsolicited consumer agreement

(1) A dealer must not call on a person for the purpose of negotiating an unsolicited consumer agreement, or for an incidental or related purpose:
   (a) at any time on a Sunday or a public holiday; or
   (b) before 9 am on any other day; or
   (c) after 6 pm on any other day (or after 5 pm if the other day is a Saturday).

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the dealer calls on the person in accordance with consent that:
   (a) was given by the person to the dealer or a person acting on the dealer’s behalf; and
   (b) was not given in the presence of the dealer or a person acting on the dealer’s behalf.

Note: The Do Not Call Register Act 2006 may apply to a telephone call made for the purpose of negotiating an unsolicited consumer agreement.

74 Disclosing purpose and identity

A dealer who calls on a person for the purpose of negotiating an unsolicited consumer agreement, or for an incidental or related purpose, must, as soon as practicable and in any event before starting to negotiate:

(a) clearly advise the person that the dealer’s purpose is to seek the person’s agreement to a supply of the goods or services concerned; and

(b) clearly advise the person that the dealer is obliged to leave the premises immediately on request; and

(c) provide to the person such information relating to the dealer’s identity as is prescribed by the regulations.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this section.

75 Ceasing to negotiate on request

(1) A dealer who calls on a person at any premises for the purpose of negotiating an unsolicited consumer agreement, or for an incidental or related purpose, must leave the premises immediately on the request of:

(a) the occupier of the premises, or any person acting with the actual or apparent authority of the occupier; or

(b) the person (the prospective consumer) with whom the negotiations are being conducted.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) If the prospective consumer makes such a request, the dealer must not contact the prospective consumer for the purpose of negotiating an unsolicited consumer agreement (or for an incidental or related purpose) for at least 30 days after the prospective consumer makes the request.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(3) If the dealer is not, or is not to be, the supplier of the goods or services to which the negotiations relate:

(a) subsection (2) applies to that supplier, and any person acting on behalf of that supplier, in the same way that it applies to the dealer; but

(b) subsection (2) does not apply to the dealer contacting the prospective customer in relation to a supply by another supplier.
76 Informing person of termination period etc.

A dealer must not make an unsolicited consumer agreement with a person unless:

(a) before the agreement is made, the person is given information as to the following:
   (i) the person’s right to terminate the agreement during the termination period;
   (ii) the way in which the person may exercise that right;
   (iii) such other matters as are prescribed by the regulations; and

(b) if the agreement is made in the presence of both the dealer and the person—the person is given the information in writing; and

(c) if the agreement is made by telephone—the person is given the information by telephone, and is subsequently given the information in writing; and

(d) the form in which, and the way in which, the person is given the information complies with any other requirements prescribed by the regulations.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this section.

77 Liability of suppliers for contraventions by dealers

If:

(a) a dealer contravenes a provision of this Subdivision in relation to an unsolicited consumer agreement; and

(b) the dealer is not, or is not to be, the supplier of the goods or services to which the agreement relates;

the supplier of the goods or services is also taken to have contravened that provision in relation to the agreement.

Subdivision C—Requirements for unsolicited consumer agreements etc.

78 Requirement to give document to the consumer

(1) If an unsolicited consumer agreement was not negotiated by telephone, the dealer who negotiated the agreement must give a copy of the agreement to the consumer under the agreement immediately after the consumer signs the agreement.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) If an unsolicited consumer agreement was negotiated by telephone, the dealer who negotiated the agreement must, within 5 business days after the agreement was made or such longer period agreed by the parties, give to the consumer under the agreement:
   (a) personally; or
   (b) by post; or
   (c) with the consumer’s consent—by electronic communication;
   a document (the agreement document) evidencing the agreement.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(3) An unsolicited consumer agreement was negotiated by telephone if the negotiations that resulted in the making of the agreement took place by telephone (whether or not other negotiations preceded the making of the agreement).

79 Requirements for all unsolicited consumer agreements etc.

The supplier under an unsolicited consumer agreement must ensure that the agreement, or (if the agreement was negotiated by telephone) the agreement document, complies with the following requirements:
   (a) it must set out in full all the terms of the agreement, including:
      (i) the total consideration to be paid or provided by the consumer under the agreement or, if the total consideration is not ascertainable at the time the agreement is made, the way in which it is to be calculated; and
      (ii) any postal or delivery charges to be paid by the consumer;
   (b) its front page must include a notice that:
      (i) conspicuously and prominently informs the consumer of the consumer’s right to terminate the agreement; and
      (ii) conspicuously and prominently sets out any other information prescribed by the regulations; and
(iii) complies with any other requirements prescribed by the regulations;

(c) it must be accompanied by a notice that:
   (i) may be used by the consumer to terminate the agreement; and
   (ii) complies with any requirements prescribed by the regulations;

(d) it must conspicuously and prominently set out in full:
   (i) the supplier’s name; and
   (ii) if the supplier has an ABN—the supplier’s ABN; and
   (iii) if the supplier does not have an ABN but has an ACN—the supplier’s ACN; and
   (iv) the supplier’s business address (not being a post box) or, if the supplier does not have a business address, the supplier’s residential address; and
   (v) if the supplier has an email address—the supplier’s email address; and
   (vi) if the supplier has a fax number—the supplier’s fax number;

(e) it must be printed clearly or typewritten (apart from any amendments to the printed or typewritten form, which may be handwritten);

(f) it must be transparent.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this section.

80 Additional requirements for unsolicited consumer agreements not negotiated by telephone

The supplier under an unsolicited consumer agreement that was not negotiated by telephone must ensure that, in addition to complying with the requirements of section 79, the agreement complies with the following requirements:

(a) the agreement must be signed by the consumer under the agreement;

(b) if the agreement is signed by a person on the supplier’s behalf—the agreement must state that the person is acting on the supplier’s behalf, and must set out in full:
   (i) the person’s name; and
(ii) the person’s business address (not being a post box) or, if the person does not have a business address, the person’s residential address; and
(iii) if the person has an email address—the person’s email address.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this section.

81 Requirements for amendments of unsolicited consumer agreements

The supplier under an unsolicited consumer agreement must ensure that any amendments to the agreement are signed by both parties to the agreement.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this section.

Subdivision D—Terminating unsolicited consumer agreements

82 Terminating an unsolicited consumer agreement during the termination period

(1) The consumer under an unsolicited consumer agreement may, during the period provided under subsection (3), terminate the agreement by indicating, in an oral or written notice to the supplier under the agreement, an intention to terminate the agreement.

(2) A right of termination under this section may be exercised:
   (a) despite affirmation of the agreement by the consumer; and
   (b) even though the agreement has been fully executed.

(3) The period during which the consumer may terminate the agreement is whichever of the following periods is the longest:
   (a) if the agreement was not negotiated by telephone—the period of 10 business days starting at the start of the first business day after the day on which the agreement was made;
   (b) if the agreement was negotiated by telephone—the period of 10 business days starting at the start of the first business day after the day on which the consumer was given the agreement document relating to the agreement;

(2) A related contract or instrument, in relation to an unsolicited consumer agreement, is:
   (a) any contract of guarantee or indemnity that is related to the agreement; or
   (b) any instrument related to the agreement that creates a mortgage or charge in favour of the supplier under the contract or the dealer in relation to the contract (or a person nominated by the supplier or dealer); or
   (c) any contract or instrument (other than an instrument of a kind referred to in paragraph (b)) that is collateral or related to the agreement;

but does not include a tied continuing credit contract (within the meaning of section 127(2) of Schedule 1 to the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009), or a tied loan contract (within the meaning of section 127(3) of that Schedule).

(3) The termination of an unsolicited consumer agreement has effect for the purposes of section 82 and this section even if:
   (a) the supplier under the agreement has not received the notice of termination; or
   (b) the goods or services supplied under the agreement have been wholly or partly consumed or used.

84 Obligations of suppliers on termination

If an unsolicited consumer agreement is terminated in accordance with section 82, the supplier under the agreement must, immediately upon being notified of the termination, return or refund to the consumer under the agreement any consideration (or the value of any consideration) that the consumer gave under the agreement or a related contract or instrument.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this section.
85 Obligations and rights of consumers on termination

   (ii) that the consumer has not already consumed; or
(b) notify the supplier of the place where the supplier may collect the goods.

(2) The goods become the property of the consumer, freed and discharged from all liens and charges of any description, if:

(b) the consumer returns the goods to the supplier, or the supplier collects the goods, under this section; and
(c) the consumer has failed to take reasonable care of the goods; the consumer is liable to pay compensation to the supplier for the damage to, or depreciation in the value of, the goods.

(4) The compensation is recoverable in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) However, the consumer is not liable for any such damage or depreciation attributable to normal use of the goods or to circumstances beyond the consumer’s control.
(6) If:

(a) an unsolicited consumer agreement is terminated in accordance with section 82 after the end of the period of 10 business days starting:

(i) if the agreement was not negotiated by telephone—at the start of the first business day after the day on which the agreement was made; or the termination does not affect any liability of the consumer under the agreement to provide consideration for the service.

86 Prohibition on supplies etc. for 10 business days

(1) The supplier under an unsolicited consumer agreement must not:

(a) supply to the consumer under the agreement the goods or services to be supplied under the agreement; or

   (ii) in any other case—at the time when the goods were supplied by their actual manufacturer; or
(b) the goods had that safety defect only because there was compliance with a mandatory standard for them; or
(c) the state of scientific or technical knowledge at the time when the goods were supplied by their manufacturer was not such as to enable that safety defect to be discovered; or

   (a) the defendant is a person whose business it is to publish or arrange for the publication of advertisements; and
   (b) the defendant received the advertisement for publication in the ordinary course of business; and
   (c) the defendant did not know, and had no reason to suspect, that its publication would amount to a contravention of such a provision.

   (b) the goods were so acquired from a person who carried on in Australia a business of supplying such goods otherwise than as the agent of a person outside Australia; and
   (c) in the case of a contravention of section 194—the defendant:
(i) did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that the goods did not comply with the safety standard to which the contravention relates; or

(ii) relied in good faith on a representation by the person from whom the defendant acquired the goods that there was no safety standard for such goods; and

(d) in the case of a contravention of section 203—the defendant:

(i) did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that the defendant had not complied with the information standard to which the contravention relates; or

(ii) relied in good faith on a representation by the person from whom the defendant acquired the goods that there was no information standard for such goods.

Note: Section 194 is about supply of consumer goods that do not comply with safety standards, and section 203 is about supply of goods that do not comply with information standards.

(2) A defendant is not entitled to rely on the defence provided by subsection (1) unless:

(a) the court gives leave; or

(b) the defendant has, not later than 7 days before the day on which the hearing of the proceeding commences, served on the person who instituted the proceeding a written notice identifying the person from whom the defendant acquired the goods.

211 Supplying services acquired for the purpose of re-supply

(1) In a prosecution for a contravention of a provision of this Chapter that was committed by supplying services in contravention of section 195 or 204, it is a defence if the defendant proves that:

(a) the services were acquired by the defendant for the purpose of re-supply; and

(b) the services were so acquired from a person who carried on in Australia a business of supplying such services otherwise than as the agent of a person outside Australia; and

(c) in the case of a contravention of section 195—the defendant:

(i) did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that the services did not comply with the safety standard to which the contravention relates; or
(ii) relied in good faith on a representation by the person from whom the defendant acquired the services that there was no safety standard for such services; and

(d) in the case of a contravention of section 204—the defendant:
   (i) did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that the defendant had not complied with the information standard to which the contravention relates; or
   (ii) relied in good faith on a representation by the person from whom the defendant acquired the services that there was no information standard for such services.

Note: Section 195 is about supply of product related services that do not comply with safety standards, and section 204 is about supply of services that do not comply with information standards.

(2) A defendant is not entitled to rely on the defence provided by subsection (1) unless:
   (a) the court gives leave; or
   (b) the defendant has, not later than 7 days before the day on which the hearing of the proceeding commences, served on the person who instituted the proceeding a written notice identifying the person from whom the defendant acquired the services.
Part 4-7—Miscellaneous

212 Prosecutions to be commenced within 3 years

A prosecution for an offence against a provision of this Chapter may be commenced at any time within 3 years after the commission of the offence.

213 Preference must be given to compensation for victims

If a court considers that:
(a) it is appropriate to impose a fine on a person (the defendant) under this Chapter in relation to:
   (i) a contravention of a provision of this Schedule; or
   (ii) an attempt to contravene such a provision; or
   (iii) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring a person to contravene such a provision; or
   (iv) inducing, or attempting to induce, a person, whether by threats or promises or otherwise, to contravene such a provision; or
   (v) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision; or
   (vi) conspiring with others to contravene such a provision; and
(b) it is appropriate to order the defendant to pay compensation to a person who has suffered loss or damage as result of that contravention or conduct; and
(c) the defendant does not have sufficient financial resources to pay both the fine and the compensation;
the court must give preference to making an order for compensation.

214 Penalties for contraventions of the same nature etc.

(1) If:
(a) a person is convicted of 2 or more offences constituted by, or relating to, contraventions of the same provision of this Chapter; and

(b) the contraventions appear to the court:
   (i) to have been of the same nature or a substantially similar nature; and
   (ii) to have occurred at or about the same time;
the court must not, in respect of the offences, impose on the person fines that, in the aggregate, exceed the maximum fine that would be applicable in respect of one offence by that person against that provision.

(2) This section applies whether or not the person is also convicted of an offence or offences constituted by, or relating to, another contravention or other contraventions of that provision that were of a different nature or occurred at a different time.

215 Penalties for previous contraventions of the same nature etc.

(1) If:
   (a) a person is convicted of an offence constituted by, or relating to, a contravention of a provision of this Chapter; and
   (b) a fine has, or fines have, previously been imposed on the person by the court for an offence or offences constituted by, or relating to, another contravention or other contraventions of the same provision; and
   (c) the contravention, or each of the contraventions, mentioned in paragraph (b) appear to the court:
      (i) to have been of the same nature as, or a substantially similar nature to, the contravention mentioned in paragraph (a); and
      (ii) to have occurred at or about the same time as the contravention mentioned in paragraph (a);
the court must not, in respect of the offence mentioned in paragraph (a), impose on the person a fine that exceeds the amount (if any) by which the maximum fine applicable in respect of that offence is greater than the amount of the fine, or the sum of the amounts of the fines, referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) This section applies whether or not a fine has, or fines have, also previously been imposed on the person for an offence or offences constituted by, or relating to, a contravention or contraventions of that provision that were of a different nature or occurred at a different time.

216 Granting of injunctions etc.

In proceedings against a person for a contravention of a provision of this Chapter, the court may:
(a) grant an injunction under Division 2 of Part 5-2 against the person in relation to:
   (i) the conduct that constitutes, or is alleged to constitute, the contravention; or
   (ii) other conduct of that kind; or
(b) make an order under section 246, 247 or 248 in relation to the contravention.

217 Criminal proceedings not to be brought for contraventions of Chapter 2 or 3

Criminal proceedings do not lie against a person only because the person:
(a) has contravened a provision of Chapter 2 or 3; or
(b) has attempted to contravene such a provision; or
(c) has aided, abetted, counselled or procured a person to contravene such a provision; or
(d) has induced, or attempted to induce, a person, whether by threats or promises or otherwise, to contravene such a provision; or
(e) has been in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision; or
(f) has conspired with others to contravene such a provision.
Chapter 5—Enforcement and remedies

Part 5-1—Enforcement

Division 1—Undertakings

218 Regulator may accept undertakings

(1) The regulator may accept a written undertaking given by a person for the purposes of this section in connection with a matter in relation to which the regulator has a power or function under this Schedule.

(2) The person may, with the consent of the regulator, withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time.

(3) If the regulator considers that the person who gave the undertaking has breached any of its terms, the regulator may apply to a court for an order under subsection (4).

(4) If the court is satisfied that the person has breached a term of the undertaking, the court may make all or any of the following orders:
   (a) an order directing the person to comply with that term of the undertaking;
   (b) an order directing the person to pay to the Commonwealth, or to a State or Territory, an amount up to the amount of any financial benefit that the person has obtained directly or indirectly and that is reasonably attributable to the breach;
   (c) any order that the court considers appropriate directing the person to compensate any other person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of the breach;
   (d) any other order that the court considers appropriate.
Division 2—Substantiation notices

219 Regulator may require claims to be substantiated etc.

(1) This section applies if a person has, in trade or commerce, made a claim or representation promoting, or apparently intended to promote:
   (a) a supply, or possible supply, of goods or services by the person or another person; or
   (b) a sale or grant, or possible sale or grant, of an interest in land by the person or another person; or
   (c) employment that is to be, or may be, offered by the person or another person.

(2) The regulator may give the person who made the claim or representation a written notice that requires the person to do one or more of the following:
   (a) give information and/or produce documents to the regulator that could be capable of substantiating or supporting the claim or representation;
   (b) if the claim or representation relates to a supply, or possible supply, of goods or services by the person or another person—give information and/or produce documents to the regulator that could be capable of substantiating:
      (i) the quantities in which; and
      (ii) the period for which;
      the person or other person is or will be able to make such a supply (whether or not the claim or representation relates to those quantities or that period);
   (c) give information and/or produce documents to the regulator that are of a kind specified in the notice;

within 21 days after the notice is given to the person who made the claim or representation.

(3) Any kind of information or documents that the regulator specifies under subsection (2)(c) must be a kind that the regulator is satisfied is relevant to:
   (a) substantiating or supporting the claim or representation; or
(b) if the claim or representation relates to a supply, or possible supply, of goods or services by the person or another person—substantiating the quantities in which, or the period for which, the person or other person is or will be able to make such a supply.

(4) The notice must:
(a) name the person to whom it is given; and
(b) specify the claim or representation to which it relates; and
(c) explain the effect of sections 220, 221 and 222.

(5) The notice may relate to more than one claim or representation that the person has made.

(6) This section does not apply to a person who made the claim or representation if the person:
(a) is an information provider; and
(b) made the claim or representation by publishing it on behalf of another person in the course of carrying on a business of providing information; and
(c) does not have a commercial relationship with the other person other than for the purpose of:
(i) publishing claims or representations promoting, or apparently intended to promote, the other person’s business or other activities; or
(ii) the other person supplying goods or services, or selling or granting interests in land to the person.

220 Extending periods for complying with substantiation notices

(1) A person who has been given a substantiation notice may, at any time within 21 days after the notice was given to the person by the regulator, apply in writing to the regulator for an extension of the period for complying with the notice.

(2) The regulator may, by written notice given to the person, extend the period within which the person must comply with the notice.

221 Compliance with substantiation notices

(1) A person who is given a substantiation notice must comply with it within the substantiation notice compliance period for the notice.
Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) The substantiation notice compliance period for a substantiation notice is:
(a) the period of 21 days specified in the notice; or
(b) if the period for complying with the notice has been extended under section 220—the period as so extended;
and includes (if an application has been made under section 220(1) for an extension of the period for complying with the notice) the period up until the time when the applicant is given notice of the regulator’s decision on the application.

(3) Despite subsection (1), an individual may refuse or fail to give particular information or produce a particular document in compliance with a substantiation notice on the ground that the information or production of the document might tend to incriminate the individual or to expose the individual to a penalty.

222 False or misleading information etc.

(1) A person must not, in compliance or purported compliance with a substantiation notice given by the regulator:
(a) give to the regulator false or misleading information; or
(b) produce to the regulator documents that contain false or misleading information.

Note: A pecuniary penalty may be imposed for a contravention of this subsection.

(2) This section does not apply to:
(a) information that the person could not have known was false or misleading; or
(b) the production to the regulator of a document containing false or misleading information if the document is accompanied by a statement of the person that the information is false or misleading.
Division 3—Public warning notices

223 Regulator may issue a public warning notice

(1) The regulator may issue to the public a written notice containing a warning about the conduct of a person if:
   (a) the regulator has reasonable grounds to suspect that the conduct may constitute a contravention of a provision of Chapter 2, 3 or 4; and
   (b) the regulator is satisfied that one or more other persons has suffered, or is likely to suffer, detriment as a result of the conduct; and
   (c) the regulator is satisfied that it is in the public interest to issue the notice.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), if:
   (a) a person refuses to respond to a substantiation notice given by the regulator to the person, or fails to respond to the notice before the end of the substantiation notice compliance period for the notice; and
   (b) the regulator is satisfied that it is in the public interest to issue a notice under this subsection;

the regulator may issue to the public a written notice containing a warning that the person has refused or failed to respond to the substantiation notice within that period, and specifying the matter to which the substantiation notice related.
Part 5-2—Remedies

Division 1—Pecuniary penalties

224 Pecuniary penalties

(1) If a court is satisfied that a person:
   (a) has contravened any of the following provisions:
      (i) a provision of Part 2-2 (which is about unconscionable conduct);
      (ii) a provision of Part 3-1 (which is about unfair practices);
      (iii) section 66(2) (which is about display notices);
      (iv) a provision (other than section 85) of Division 2 of Part 3-2 (which is about unsolicited consumer agreements);
      (v) a provision (other than section 96(2)) of Division 3 of Part 3-2 (which is about lay-by agreements);
      (vi) section 100(1) or (3) or 101(3) or (4) (which are about proof of transactions and itemised bills);
      (vii) section 102(2) or 103(2) (which are about prescribed requirements for warranties and repairers);
      (viii) section 106(1), (2), (3) or (5), 107(1) or (2), 118(1), (2), (3) or (5), 119(1) or (2), 125(4), 127(1) or (2), 128(2) or (6), 131(1) or 132(1) (which are about safety of consumer goods and product related services);
      (ix) section 136(1), (2) or (3) or 137(1) or (2) (which are about information standards);
      (x) section 221(1) or 222(1) (which are about substantiation notices); or
   (b) has attempted to contravene such a provision; or
   (c) has aided, abetted, counselled or procured a person to contravene such a provision; or
   (d) has induced, or attempted to induce, a person, whether by threats or promises or otherwise, to contravene such a provision; or
   (e) has been in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision; or
(f) has conspired with others to contravene such a provision; the court may order the person to pay to the Commonwealth, State or Territory, as the case may be, such pecuniary penalty, in respect of each act or omission by the person to which this section applies, as the court determines to be appropriate.

(2) In determining the appropriate pecuniary penalty, the court must have regard to all relevant matters including:

(a) the nature and extent of the act or omission and of any loss or damage suffered as a result of the act or omission; and

(b) the circumstances in which the act or omission took place; and

(c) whether the person has previously been found by a court in proceedings under Chapter 4 or this Part to have engaged in any similar conduct.

(3) The pecuniary penalty payable under subsection (1) is not to exceed the amount worked out using the following table:

(4) If conduct constitutes a contravention of 2 or more provisions referred to in subsection (1)(a):

(a) a proceeding may be instituted under this Schedule against a person in relation to the contravention of any one or more of the provisions; but

(b) a person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this section in respect of the same conduct.
(1) A court must not make an order under section 224 against a person in relation to either of the following matters (a consumer protection breach):
   (a) a contravention of a provision referred to in section 224(1)(a);
   (b) conduct referred to in section 224(1)(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) that relates to a contravention of such a provision;
if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the consumer protection breach.

(2) Proceedings for an order under section 224 against a person in relation to a consumer protection breach are stayed if:
   (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence; and
   (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the consumer protection breach.

The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings are dismissed.

(3) Criminal proceedings may be started against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a consumer protection breach regardless of whether an order under section 224 has been made against the person in respect of the breach.

(4) Evidence of information given, or evidence of the production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:
   (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for an order under section 224 against the individual in relation to a consumer protection breach (whether or not the order was made); and
   (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the consumer protection breach.

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the order.
226 Defence

If, in proceedings under section 224 against a person other than a body corporate, it appears to a court that the person has, or may have:

(a) engaged in conduct in contravention of a provision referred to in subsection (1)(a) of that section; or
(b) engaged in conduct referred to in subsection (1)(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) of that section that relates to a contravention of such a provision;

but that the person acted honestly and reasonably and, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, ought fairly to be excused, the court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from liability to a pecuniary penalty under that section.

227 Preference must be given to compensation for victims

If a court considers that:

(a) it is appropriate to order a person (the defendant) to pay a pecuniary penalty under section 224 in relation to:
   (i) a contravention of a provision referred to in subsection (1)(a) of that section; or
   (ii) conduct referred to in subsection (1)(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) of that section that relates to a contravention such a provision; and
(b) it is appropriate to order the defendant to pay compensation to a person who has suffered loss or damage as result of that contravention or conduct; and
(c) the defendant does not have sufficient financial resources to pay both the pecuniary penalty and the compensation;

the court must give preference to making an order for compensation.

228 Civil action for recovery of pecuniary penalties

(1) The regulator may institute a proceeding in a court for the recovery on behalf of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, as the case may be, of a pecuniary penalty referred to in section 224.

(2) A proceeding under subsection (1) may be commenced at any time within 6 years after the contravention or conduct.
229 Indemnification of officers

(1) A body corporate (the first body), or a body corporate related to the first body, commits an offence if it indemnifies a person (whether by agreement or by making a payment and whether directly or through an interposed entity) against either of the following liabilities incurred as an officer (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) of the first body:

(a) a liability to pay a pecuniary penalty under section 224;

(b) legal costs incurred in defending or resisting proceedings in which the person is found to have such a liability.

Penalty: $2,750.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the outcome of proceedings is the outcome of the proceedings and any appeal in relation to the proceedings.

230 Certain indemnities not authorised and certain documents void

(1) Section 229 does not authorise anything that would otherwise be unlawful.

(2) Anything that purports to indemnify a person against a liability is void to the extent that it contravenes section 229.
Division 2—Injunctions

232 Injunctions

(1) A court may grant an injunction, in such terms as the court considers appropriate, if the court is satisfied that a person has engaged, or is proposing to engage, in conduct that constitutes or would constitute:
   (a) a contravention of a provision of Chapter 2, 3 or 4; or
   (b) attempting to contravene such a provision; or
   (c) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring a person to contravene such a provision; or
   (d) inducing, or attempting to induce, whether by threats, promises or otherwise, a person to contravene such a provision; or
   (e) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision; or
   (f) conspiring with others to contravene such a provision.

(2) The court may grant the injunction on application by the regulator or any other person.

(3) Subsection (1) applies in relation to conduct constituted by applying or relying on, or purporting to apply or rely on, a term of a consumer contract that has been declared under section 250 to be an unfair term as if the conduct were a contravention of a provision of Chapter 2.

(4) The power of the court to grant an injunction under subsection (1) restraining a person from engaging in conduct may be exercised:
   (a) whether or not it appears to the court that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of a kind referred to in that subsection; and
   (b) whether or not the person has previously engaged in conduct of that kind; and
   (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the person engages in conduct of that kind.
(5) Without limiting subsection (1), the court may grant an injunction under that subsection restraining a person from carrying on a business or supplying goods or services (whether or not as part of, or incidental to, the carrying on of another business):
   (a) for a specified period; or
   (b) except on specified terms and conditions.

(6) Without limiting subsection (1), the court may grant an injunction under that subsection requiring a person to do any of the following:
   (a) refund money;
   (b) transfer property;
   (c) honour a promise;
   (d) destroy or dispose of goods.

   (b) whether or not the person has previously refused or failed to do that act or thing; and
   (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the person refuses or fails to do that act or thing.

233 Consent injunctions

If an application is made under section 232, the court may, if it considers that it is appropriate to do so, grant an injunction under this section by consent of all the parties to the proceedings, whether or not the court is satisfied as required by section 232(1).

234 Interim injunctions

(1) If an application is made under section 232, the court may, if it considers it is desirable to do so, grant an interim injunction under this subsection pending the determination of the application.

(3) If:
   (a) in a case to which subsection (2) does not apply the court would, but for this subsection, require a person to give an undertaking as to damages or costs; and
   (b) a responsible Minister gives the undertaking; the court must accept the undertaking by the responsible Minister and must not require a further undertaking from any other person.

235 Variation and discharge of injunctions

A court may vary or discharge an injunction (including an interim injunction) that it has granted under this Division.

   (a) which persons are non-party consumers in relation to the contravening conduct or declared term;
   (b) the nature of the loss or damage suffered, or likely to be suffered, by such persons.

241 When a non-party consumer is bound by a redress order etc.

   (b) any other law of the Commonwealth, or a State or a Territory;
   no claim, action or demand may be made or taken against the person by the non-party consumer in relation to that loss or damage.

   (c) either:
      (i) the defendant did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that the consumer goods did not comply with that safety standard, or that the defendant had not complied with that information standard, as the case may be; or
(ii) the defendant relied in good faith on a representation by the person from whom the defendant acquired the goods

standard, as the case may be, for such consumer goods.

(3) A defendant is not entitled to rely on the defence provided by subsection (2) unless:
(a) the court gives leave; or
(b) the defendant has, not later than 7 days before the day on

(a) the supplying of product related services that did not comply with a safety standard for such services; or
(b) the supplying of product related services by a supplier who

(b) the product related services were so acquired from a person who carried on in Australia a business of supplying such services otherwise than as the agent of a person outside Australia; and
(c) either:
(i) the defendant did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that the product related services did not comply with that safety standard, or that the defendant had not complied with that information standard, as the case may be; or
(ii) the defendant relied in good faith on a representation by the person from whom the defendant acquired the goods that there was no safety standard or information standard, as the case may be, for such product related services.

(3) A defendant is not entitled to rely on the defence provided by subsection (2) unless:
   (a) the court gives leave; or

255 Country of origin representations do not contravene certain provisions

(1) A person does not contravene section 18, 29(1)(a) or (k) or 151(1)(a) or (k) only by making a representation of a kind referred to in an item in the first column of this table, if the requirements of the corresponding item in the second column are met.

</table>

Note: The regulations may prescribe rules for determining the percentage of the total costs of production or manufacture of goods attributable to production or manufacturing processes that occurred in a particular country, see section 257.

(2) Despite subsection (1), this section does not apply to a representation of a kind referred to in item 4 or 5 in the first column of the table in that subsection if the representation is made together with another representation of a kind referred to in item 1 or 2 in that first column.

(3) Goods are substantially transformed in a country if they undergo a fundamental change in that country in form, appearance or nature such that the goods existing after the change are new and different goods from those existing before the change.

(4) Without limiting subsection (3), the regulations:
   (a) may prescribe changes (whether in relation to particular classes of goods or otherwise) that are not fundamental changes for the purposes of that subsection; and
   (b) may include examples (in relation to particular classes of goods or otherwise) of changes which are fundamental changes for the purposes of that subsection.

(5) Item 2 of the table in subsection (1) applies to a representation that goods are the produce of a particular country whether the representation uses the words “product of”, “produce of” or any other grammatical variation of the word “produce”.

(6) The regulations made for the purposes of item 3 of the table in subsection (1) may, in relation to a specified logo, prescribe a percentage in the range of 51% to 100% as the percentage applicable to goods for the purposes of paragraph (b) in the second column of that item.

(7) Goods, or ingredients or components of goods, are grown in a country if they:
   (a) are materially increased in size or materially altered in substance in that country by natural development; or
   (b) germinated or otherwise arose in, or issued in, that country; or
   (c) are harvested, extracted or otherwise derived from an organism that has been materially increased in size, or materially altered in substance, in that country by natural development.

(8) For the purposes of items 4 and 5 in the table in subsection (1) in relation to particular goods:
   (a) packaging materials are not treated as ingredients or components of the goods; and
(b) disregard the weight of packaging materials in working out the weight of the goods.

(9) For the purposes of items 4 and 5 in the table in subsection (1) in relation to an ingredient or component that has been dried or concentrated by the evaporation of water, and to which water has been added to return the water content of the ingredient or component to no more than its natural level:
(a) the weight of the water so added is included in the weight of the ingredient or component; and
(b) the water so added is treated as having the same origin as the ingredient or component, regardless of its actual origin.

256 Cost of producing or manufacturing goods

(1) The cost of producing or manufacturing goods is worked out, for the purposes of section 255, by adding up the following amounts:
(a) the amount of expenditure on materials in respect of the goods;
(b) the amount of expenditure on labour in respect of the goods;
(c) the amount of expenditure on overheads in respect of the goods;

each worked out in accordance with this table:

   (a) the cost of a particular material, or a part of such a cost; or
   (b) a particular labour cost, or a part of a labour cost; or
   (c) a particular overhead cost, or a part of an overhead cost; is not allowable in respect of goods, or classes of goods.

(3) The regulations may, for the purposes of subsection (1), prescribe the manner of working out:
   (a) the cost of a material, or part of the cost; or
   (b) a labour cost, or part of the cost; or
   (c) an overhead cost, or part of the cost.

257 Rules for determining the percentage of costs of production or manufacture attributable to a country

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the regulations may prescribe rules for determining, for the purposes of section 255, the percentage of the total cost of production or manufacture of goods attributable to production or manufacturing processes that occurred in a particular country.

(2) Rules prescribed under subsection (1) must not discriminate (whether favourably or unfavourably) between countries or classes of countries.

258 Proceedings relating to false, misleading or deceptive conduct or representations

If:

(a) proceedings are brought against a person in respect of section 18, 29(1)(a) or (k) or 151(1)(a) or (k); and

(b) the person seeks to rely on a provision of this Part, or of a regulation made for the purposes of a provision of this Part, in the proceedings;

the person bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters set out in the provision on which the person seeks to rely.
Part 5-4—Remedies relating to guarantees

Division 1—Action against suppliers

Subdivision A—Action against suppliers of goods

259 Action against suppliers of goods

(1) A consumer may take action under this section if:
   (a) a person (the supplier) supplies, in trade or commerce, goods to the consumer; and
   (b) a guarantee that applies to the supply under Subdivision A of Division 1 of Part 3-2 (other than sections 58 and 59(1)) is not complied with.

(2) If the failure to comply with the guarantee can be remedied and is not a major failure:
   (a) the consumer may require the supplier to remedy the failure within a reasonable time; or
   (b) if such a requirement is made of the supplier but the supplier refuses or fails to comply with the requirement, or fails to comply with the requirement within a reasonable time—the consumer may:
      (i) otherwise have the failure remedied and, by action against the supplier, recover all reasonable costs incurred by the consumer in having the failure so remedied; or
      (ii) subject to section 262, notify the supplier that the consumer rejects the goods and of the ground or grounds for the rejection.

(3) If the failure to comply with the guarantee cannot be remedied or is a major failure, the consumer may:
   (a) subject to section 262, notify the supplier that the consumer rejects the goods and of the ground or grounds for the rejection; or
   (b) by action against the supplier, recover compensation for any reduction in the value of the goods below the price paid or payable by the consumer for the goods.
(4) The consumer may, by action against the supplier, recover damages for any loss or damage suffered by the consumer because of the failure to comply with the guarantee if it was reasonably foreseeable that the consumer would suffer such loss or damage as a result of such a failure.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the failure to comply with the guarantee occurred only because of a cause independent of human control that occurred after the goods left the control of the supplier.

(6) To avoid doubt, subsection (4) applies in addition to subsections (2) and (3).

(7) The consumer may take action under this section whether or not the goods are in their original packaging.

260 When a failure to comply with a guarantee is a major failure

A failure to comply with a guarantee referred to in section 259(1)(b) that applies to a supply of goods is a major failure if:

(a) the goods would not have been acquired by a reasonable consumer fully acquainted with the nature and extent of the failure; or

(b) the goods depart in one or more significant respects:
   (i) if they were supplied by description—from that description; or
   (ii) if they were supplied by reference to a sample or demonstration model—from that sample or demonstration model; or

(c) the goods are substantially unfit for a purpose for which goods of the same kind are commonly supplied and they cannot, easily and within a reasonable time, be remedied to make them fit for such a purpose; or

(d) the goods are unfit for a disclosed purpose that was made known to:
   (i) the supplier of the goods; or
   (ii) a person by whom any prior negotiations or arrangements in relation to the acquisition of the goods were conducted or made;
and they cannot, easily and within a reasonable time, be remedied to make them fit for such a purpose; or
(e) the goods are not of acceptable quality because they are unsafe.

261 How suppliers may remedy a failure to comply with a guarantee

If, under section 259(2)(a), a consumer requires a supplier of goods to remedy a failure to comply with a guarantee referred to in section 259(1)(b), the supplier may comply with the requirement:
(a) if the failure relates to title—by curing any defect in title; or
(b) if the failure does not relate to title—by repairing the goods; or
(c) by replacing the goods with goods of an identical type; or
(d) by refunding:
   (i) any money paid by the consumer for the goods; and
   (ii) an amount that is equal to the value of any other consideration provided by the consumer for the goods.

262 When consumers are not entitled to reject goods

(1) A consumer is not entitled, under section 259, to notify a supplier of goods that the consumer rejects the goods if:
(a) the rejection period for the goods has ended; or
(b) the goods have been lost, destroyed or disposed of by the consumer; or
(c) the goods were damaged after being delivered to the consumer for reasons not related to their state or condition at the time of supply; or
(d) the goods have been attached to, or incorporated in, any real or personal property and they cannot be detached or isolated without damaging them.

(2) The rejection period for goods is the period from the time of the supply of the goods to the consumer within which it would be reasonable to expect the relevant failure to comply with a guarantee referred to in section 259(1)(b) to become apparent having regard to:
(a) the type of goods; and
(b) the use to which a consumer is likely to put them; and
(c) the length of time for which it is reasonable for them to be used; and
(d) the amount of use to which it is reasonable for them to be put before such a failure becomes apparent.

263 Consequences of rejecting goods

(1) This section applies if, under section 259, a consumer notifies a supplier of goods that the consumer rejects the goods.

(2) The consumer must return the goods to the supplier unless:
   (a) the goods have already been returned to, or retrieved by, the supplier; or
   (b) the goods cannot be returned, removed or transported without significant cost to the consumer because of:
      (i) the nature of the failure to comply with the guarantee to which the rejection relates; or
      (ii) the size or height, or method of attachment, of the goods.

(3) If subsection (2)(b) applies, the supplier must, within a reasonable time, collect the goods at the supplier’s expense.

(4) The supplier must, in accordance with an election made by the consumer:
   (a) refund:
      (i) any money paid by the consumer for the goods; and
      (ii) an amount that is equal to the value of any other consideration provided by the consumer for the goods; or
   (b) replace the rejected goods with goods of the same type, and of similar value, if such goods are reasonably available to the supplier.

(5) The supplier cannot satisfy subsection (4)(a) by permitting the consumer to acquire goods from the supplier.

(6) If the property in the rejected goods had passed to the consumer before the rejection was notified, the property in those goods re vests in the supplier on the notification of the rejection.
264 Replaced goods

If the goods are replaced under section 261(c) or 263(4)(b):
(a) the replacement goods are taken, for the purposes of Division 1 of Part 3-2 and this Part, to be supplied by the supplier; and
(b) the provisions of Division 1 of Part 3-2 and this Part apply in relation to the replacement goods.

265 Termination of contracts for the supply of services that are connected with rejected goods

(1) If:
(a) under section 259, a consumer notifies a supplier of goods that the consumer rejects the goods; and (b) the supplier is required under section 263(4)(a) to give the consumer a refund; and
(c) a person supplies, in trade or commerce, services to the consumer that are connected with the rejected goods;
the consumer may terminate the contract for the supply of the services.

(2) The termination takes effect:
(a) at the time the termination is made known to the supplier of the services (whether by words or by conduct indicating the consumer’s intention to terminate the contract); or (b) if it is not reasonably practicable to communicate with the supplier of the services—at the time the consumer indicates, by means which are reasonable in the circumstances, his or her intention to terminate the contract.

(3) The consumer is entitled to recover, by action against the supplier of the services, a refund of:
(a) any money paid by the consumer for the services; and
(b) an amount that is equal to the value of any other consideration provided by the consumer for the services; to the extent that the consumer has not already consumed the services at the time the termination takes effect.
266 Rights of gift recipients

If a consumer acquires goods from a supplier and gives them to another person as a gift, the other person may, subject to any defence which would be available to the supplier against the consumer:

(a) exercise any rights or remedies under this Subdivision which would be available to the other person if he or she had acquired the goods from the supplier; and
(b) any reference in this Subdivision to a consumer includes a reference to the other person accordingly.

Subdivision B—Action against suppliers of services

267 Action against suppliers of services

(1) A consumer may take action under this section if:

(a) a person (the supplier) supplies, in trade or commerce, services to the consumer; and
(b) a guarantee that applies to the supply under Subdivision B of Division 1 of Part 3-2 is not complied with; and
(c) unless the guarantee is the guarantee under section 60—the failure to comply with the guarantee did not occur only because of:

(i) an act, default or omission of, or a representation made by, any person other than the supplier, or an agent or employee of the supplier; or
(ii) a cause independent of human control that occurred after the services were supplied.

(2) If the failure to comply with the guarantee can be remedied and is not a major failure:

(a) the consumer may require the supplier to remedy the failure within a reasonable time; or
(b) if such a requirement is made of the supplier but the supplier refuses or fails to comply with the requirement, or fails to comply with the requirement within a reasonable time—the consumer may:

(i) otherwise have the failure remedied and, by action against the supplier, recover all reasonable costs incurred by the consumer in having the failure so remedied; or

(ii) terminate the contract for the supply of the services.

(3) If the failure to comply with the guarantee cannot be remedied or is a major failure, the consumer may:
(a) terminate the contract for the supply of the services; or
(b) by action against the supplier, recover compensation for any reduction in the value of the services below the price paid or payable by the consumer for the services.

(4) The consumer may, by action against the supplier, recover damages for any loss or damage suffered by the consumer because of the failure to comply with the guarantee if it was reasonably foreseeable that the consumer would suffer such loss or damage as a result of such a failure.

(5) To avoid doubt, subsection (4) applies in addition to subsections (2) and (3).

268 When a failure to comply with a guarantee is a major failure

A failure to comply with a guarantee referred to in section 267(1)(b) that applies to a supply of services is a major failure if:
(a) the services would not have been acquired by a reasonable consumer fully acquainted with the nature and extent of the failure; or
(b) the services are substantially unfit for a purpose for which services of the same kind are commonly supplied and they cannot, easily and within a reasonable time, be remedied to make them fit for such a purpose; or
(c) both of the following apply:
   (i) the services, and any product resulting from the services, are unfit for a particular purpose for which the services were acquired by the consumer that was made known to the supplier of the services;
   (ii) the services, and any of those products, cannot, easily and within a reasonable time, be remedied to make them fit for such a purpose; or
(d) both of the following apply:
(i) the services, and any product resulting from the services, are not of such a nature, or quality, state or condition, that they might reasonably be expected to achieve a result desired by the consumer that was made known to the supplier;

(ii) the services, and any of those products, cannot, easily and within a reasonable time, be remedied to achieve such a result; or

(e) the supply of the services creates an unsafe situation.

269 Termination of contracts for the supply of services

(1) This section applies if, under section 267, a consumer terminates a contract for the supply of services.

(2) The termination takes effect:
   (a) at the time the termination is made known to the supplier of the services (whether by words or by conduct indicating the consumer’s intention to terminate the contract); or
   (b) if it is not reasonably practicable to communicate with the supplier of the services—at the time the consumer indicates, by means which are reasonable in the circumstances, his or her intention to terminate the contract.

(3) The consumer is entitled to recover, by action against the supplier of the services, a refund of:
   (a) any money paid by the consumer for the services; and
   (b) an amount that is equal to the value of any other consideration provided by the consumer for the services; to the extent that the consumer has not already consumed the services at the time the termination takes effect.

270 Termination of contracts for the supply of goods that are connected with terminated services

(1) If:
   (a) under section 267, a consumer terminates a contract for the supply of services; and
   (b) a person (the supplier) has supplied, in trade or commerce, goods to the consumer that are connected with the services; then:
(c) the consumer is taken to have rejected the goods at the time the termination of the contract takes effect; and
(d) the consumer must return the goods to the supplier of the goods unless:
   (i) the goods have already been returned to, or retrieved by, the supplier; or
   (ii) the goods cannot be returned, removed or transported without significant cost to the consumer because of the nature of the failure to comply with the guarantee to which the rejection relates, or because of the size or height, or method of attachment, of the goods; and
(e) the supplier must refund:
   (i) any money paid by the consumer for the goods; and
   (ii) an amount that is equal to the value of any other consideration provided by the consumer for the goods.

(2) If subsection (1)(d)(ii) applies, the supplier must collect the goods at the supplier’s expense.
Division 2—Action for damages against manufacturers of goods

271 Action for damages against manufacturers of goods

(1) If:
   (a) the guarantee under section 54 applies to a supply of goods to a consumer; and
   (b) the guarantee is not complied with;

   an affected person in relation to the goods may, by action against the manufacturer of the goods, recover damages from the manufacturer.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the guarantee under section 54 is not complied with only because of:
   (a) an act, default or omission of, or any representation made by, any person other than the manufacturer or an employee or agent of the manufacturer; or
   (b) a cause independent of human control that occurred after the goods left the control of the manufacturer; or
   (c) the fact that the price charged by the supplier was higher than the manufacturer’s recommended retail price, or the average retail price, for the goods.

(3) If:
   (a) a person supplies, in trade or commerce, goods by description to a consumer; and
   (b) the description was applied to the goods by or on behalf of the manufacturer of the goods, or with express or implied consent of the manufacturer; and
   (c) the guarantee under section 56 applies to the supply and it is not complied with;

   an affected person in relation to the goods may, by action against the manufacturer of the goods, recover damages from the manufacturer.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the guarantee under section 56 is not complied with only because of:
   (a) an act, default or omission of any person other than the manufacturer or an employee or agent of the manufacturer; or
(b) a cause independent of human control that occurred after the goods left the control of the manufacturer.

(5) If:
   (a) the guarantee under section 58 or 59(1) applies to a supply of goods to a consumer; and
   (b) the guarantee is not complied with;
   an affected person in relation to the goods may, by action against the manufacturer of the goods, recover damages from the manufacturer.

(6) If an affected person in relation to goods has, in accordance with an express warranty given or made by the manufacturer of the goods, required the manufacturer to remedy a failure to comply with a guarantee referred to in subsection (1), (3) or (5):
   (a) by repairing the goods; or
   (b) by replacing the goods with goods of an identical type;
then, despite that subsection, the affected person is not entitled to commence an action under that subsection to recover damages of a kind referred to in section 272(1)(a) unless the manufacturer has refused or failed to remedy the failure, or has failed to remedy the failure within a reasonable time.

(7) The affected person in relation to the goods may commence an action under this section whether or not the goods are in their original packaging.

272 Damages that may be recovered by action against manufacturers of goods

(1) In an action for damages under this Division, an affected person in relation to goods is entitled to recover damages for:
   (a) any reduction in the value of the goods, resulting from the failure to comply with the guarantee to which the action relates, below whichever of the following prices is lower:
      (i) the price paid or payable by the consumer for the goods;
      (ii) the average retail price of the goods at the time of supply; and
   (b) any loss or damage suffered by the affected person because of the failure to comply with the guarantee to which the action relates if it was reasonably foreseeable that the affected person would suffer such loss or damage as a result of such a failure.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1)(b), the cost of inspecting and returning the goods to the manufacturer is taken to be a reasonably foreseeable loss suffered by the affected person as a result of the failure to comply with the guarantee.

(3) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply to loss or damage suffered through a reduction in the value of the goods.

273 Time limit for actions against manufacturers of goods

An affected person may commence an action for damages under this Division at any time within 3 years after the day on which the affected person first became aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware, that the guarantee to which the action relates has not been complied with.
Division 3—Miscellaneous

274 Indemnification of suppliers by manufacturers

(1) A manufacturer of goods is liable to indemnify a person (the supplier) who supplies the goods to a consumer if:
   (a) the supplier is liable to pay damages under section 259(4) to the consumer for loss or damage suffered by the consumer; and
   (b) the manufacturer is or would be liable under section 271 to pay damages to the consumer for the same loss or damage.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a manufacturer of goods is liable to indemnify a person (the supplier) who supplies the goods to a consumer if:
   (a) the supplier incurs costs because the supplier is liable under this Part for a failure to comply with a guarantee that applies to the supply under Subdivision A of Division 1 of Part 3-2; and
   (b) the failure is:
      (i) a failure to comply with the guarantee under section 54; or
      (ii) a failure to comply with the guarantee under section 55 in relation to a disclosed purpose that the consumer made known to the manufacturer either directly or through the supplier or the person referred to in section 55(2)(a)(ii); or
      (iii) a failure to comply with the guarantee under section 56 in relation to a description that was applied to the goods by or on behalf of the manufacturer of the goods, or with the express or implied consent of the manufacturer.

(3) The supplier may, with respect to the manufacturer’s liability to indemnify the supplier, commence an action against the manufacturer in a court of competent jurisdiction for such legal or equitable relief as the supplier could have obtained if that liability had arisen under a contract of indemnity made between them.

(4) The supplier may commence the action at any time within 3 years after the earliest of the following days:
(a) the day, or the first day, as the case may be, on which the supplier made a payment with respect to, or otherwise discharged in whole or in part, the liability of the supplier to the consumer;
(b) the day on which a proceeding was commenced by the consumer against the supplier with respect to that liability or, if more than one such proceeding was commenced, the day on which the first such proceeding was commenced.

275 Limitation of liability etc.

If:
(a) there is a failure to comply with a guarantee that applies to a supply of services under Subdivision B of Division 1 of Part 3-2; and
(b) the law of a State or a Territory is the proper law of the contract; that law applies to limit or preclude liability for the failure, and recovery of that liability (if any), in the same way as it applies to limit or preclude liability, and recovery of any liability, for a breach of a term of the contract for the supply of the services.

276 This Part not to be excluded etc. by contract

(1) A term of a contract (including a term that is not set out in the contract but is incorporated in the contract by another term of the contract) is void to the extent that the term purports to exclude, restrict or modify, or has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying:
(a) the application of all or any of the provisions of this Part; or
(b) the exercise of a right a conferred by such a provision; or
(c) any liability of a person in relation to a failure to comply with a guarantee that applies under Division 1 of Part 3-2 to a supply of goods or services.

(2) A term of a contract is not taken, for the purposes of this section, to exclude, restrict or modify the application of a provision of this Part unless the term does so expressly or is inconsistent with the provision.

(3) This section does not apply to a term of a contract that is a term referred to in section 276A(4).
276A Limitation in certain circumstances of liability of manufacturer to seller

(1) Despite section 274, if goods are not of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption, the liability under that section of the manufacturer of the goods to a person (the supplier) who supplied the goods to a consumer is limited to a liability to pay to the supplier an amount equal to:
   (a) the cost of replacing the goods; or
   (b) the cost of obtaining equivalent goods; or
   (c) the cost of having the goods repaired;
whichever is the lowest amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to particular goods if the supplier establishes that it is not fair or reasonable for the liability of the manufacturer of the goods to be limited as mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) In determining for the purposes of subsection (2) whether or not it is fair or reasonable for the liability of a manufacturer to a supplier in relation to goods to be limited as mentioned in subsection (1), a court is to have regard to all the circumstances of the case, and in particular to the following matters:
   (a) the availability of suitable alternative sources of supply of the goods;
   (b) the availability of equivalent goods;
   (c) whether the goods were manufactured, processed or adapted to the special order of the supplier.

(4) This section is subject to any term of a contract between the manufacturer and the supplier imposing on the manufacturer a greater liability than the liability mentioned in subsection (1).

277 Representative actions by the regulator

(1) The regulator may, by application, commence an action under this Part on behalf of one or more persons identified in the application who are entitled under this Part to take the action.

(2) The regulator may only make the application if it has obtained the written consent of the person, or each of the persons, on whose behalf the application is being made.
Part 5-5—Liability of suppliers and credit providers

Division 1—Linked credit contracts

278 Liability of suppliers and linked credit providers relating to linked credit contracts

(1) If a consumer who is a party to a linked credit contract suffers loss or damage as a result of:
   (a) a misrepresentation relating to the credit provided under that linked credit contract, or to a supply of goods or services (a related supply) to which that contract relates; or
   (b) a breach of the linked credit contract, or of a contract for a related supply; or
   (c) the failure of consideration in relation to the linked credit contract, or to a contract for a related supply; or
   (d) a failure to comply with a guarantee that applies, under section 54, 55, 56, 57, 60, 61 or 62, in relation to a related supply; or
   (e) a breach of a warranty that is implied in the linked credit contract by section 12ED of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001;

the linked credit provider who is a party to the contract, and the supplier of a related supply, are jointly and severally liable to the consumer for the amount of the loss or damage.

(2) A linked credit contract is a contract that a consumer enters into with a linked credit provider of a person (the supplier) for the provision of credit in relation to:
   (a) the supply by way of sale, lease, hire or hire-purchase of goods to the consumer by the linked credit provider where the supplier supplies the goods, or causes the goods to be supplied, to the linked credit provider; or
   (b) the supply by the supplier of goods or services, or goods and services, to the consumer.
279  Action by consumer to recover amount of loss or damage

(1) If a linked credit provider, and a supplier of the goods or services, are liable under section 278 to a consumer for an amount of loss or damage, the consumer may recover the amount by action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The consumer must bring the action against the linked credit provider and the supplier jointly.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if:
   (a) the supplier has been dissolved or the winding up of the supplier has commenced; or
   (b) both of the following apply:
      (i) in the opinion of the court in which the action is taken, it is not reasonably likely that a judgment obtained against the supplier would be satisfied;
      (ii) that court has, on the application of the consumer, declared that that subsection does not apply in relation to the proceedings.

280  Cases where a linked credit provider is not liable

(1) In joint liability proceedings, a linked credit provider is not liable to a consumer under section 278 if the linked credit provider establishes that:
   (a) the credit provided by the credit provider to the consumer was the result of an approach made to the credit provider by the consumer; and
   (b) the approach was not induced by the supplier of the goods or services to which the linked credit contract relates.

(2) In joint liability proceedings, a linked credit provider is not liable to a consumer under section 278 if the proceedings relate to the supply by way of lease, hire or hire-purchase of goods to the consumer by the linked credit provider, and the credit provider establishes that:
   (a) after due inquiry before becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier of the goods, the credit provider was satisfied that the reputation of the supplier in respect of the supplier’s financial standing and business conduct was good; and
(b) after becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, the credit provider had not had cause to suspect that:
   (i) the consumer might be entitled to recover an amount of loss or damage suffered as a result of a misrepresentation, breach, failure of consideration, failure to comply with a guarantee, or breach of a warranty, referred to in section 278(1); and
   (ii) the supplier might be unable to meet the supplier’s liabilities as and when they fall due.

(3) In joint liability proceedings, a linked credit provider is not liable to a consumer under section 278 if the proceedings relate to a contract of sale in relation to which a tied loan contract applies and the linked credit provider establishes that:
   (a) after due inquiry before becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier of goods to which the contract relates, the credit provider was satisfied that the reputation of the supplier in respect of the supplier’s financial standing and business conduct was good; and
   (b) after becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, but before the tied loan contract was entered into, the linked credit provider had not had cause to suspect that:
      (i) the consumer might, if the tied loan contract was entered into, be entitled to recover an amount of loss or damage suffered as a result of a misrepresentation, breach, failure of consideration, failure to comply with a guarantee, or breach of a warranty, referred to in section 278(1); and
      (ii) the supplier might be unable to meet the supplier’s liabilities as and when they fall due.

(4) In joint liability proceedings, a linked credit provider is not liable to a consumer under section 278 if:
   (a) the proceedings relate to a contract of sale in relation to which a tied continuing credit contract entered into by the linked credit provider applies; and
   (b) the credit provider establishes the matter referred to in subsection (5), having regard to:
      (i) the nature and volume of business carried on by the credit provider; and
(ii) such other matters as appear to be relevant in the circumstances of the case.

(5) The matter for the purposes of subsection (4) is that the linked credit provider, before first becoming aware of:

(a) the contract of sale referred to in paragraph (a) of that subsection; or

(b) proposals for the making of such a contract;

had not had cause to suspect that a person entering into such a contract with the supplier might be entitled to claim damages against, or recover a sum of money from, the supplier for a misrepresentation, breach, failure of consideration, failure to comply with a guarantee, or a breach of a warranty, referred to in section 278(1).

(6) This section has effect despite section 278(1).

281 Amount of liability of linked credit providers

The liability of a linked credit provider to a consumer under section 278(1) in relation to a contract referred to in section 278(1) is limited to an amount that does not exceed the sum of:

(a) the amount financed under the tied loan contract, tied continuing credit contract, lease contract, contract of hire or contract of hire-purchase; and

(b) the amount of interest (if any), or damages in the nature of interest, allowed or awarded against the credit provider by the court in which the action in relation to the liability is taken; and

(c) the amount of costs (if any) awarded by that court against the credit provider or supplier, or both.

282 Counter-claims and offsets

(1) If proceedings in relation to a linked credit contract are brought against a consumer who is party to the contract by the linked credit provider who is a party to the contract, the consumer is not entitled to:

(a) make a counter-claim in relation to the credit provider’s liability under section 278(1); or
(b) exercise a right conferred by subsection (3) of this section in relation to that liability; unless the consumer claims in the proceedings against the supplier in respect of the liability, by third-party proceedings or otherwise.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if:

(a) the supplier has been dissolved or the winding up of the supplier has commenced; or

(b) both of the following apply:

(i) in the opinion of the court in which the proceedings are taken, it is not reasonably likely that a judgment obtained against the supplier would be satisfied;

(ii) that court has, on the application of the consumer, declared that that subsection does not apply in relation to the proceedings.

(3) In any proceedings in relation to a linked credit contract in which the linked credit provider who is a party to the contract claims damages or an amount of money from a consumer, the consumer may offset, in whole or in part, the consumer’s liability against any liability of the credit provider under section 278(1).

283 Enforcement of judgments etc.

(1) If, in joint liability proceedings, judgment is given against a supplier and a linked credit provider, the judgment must not be enforced against the credit provider unless a written demand made on the supplier for satisfaction of the judgment has remained unsatisfied for at least 30 days.

(2) If the judgment can be enforced against the linked credit provider, it may only be enforced to the extent of the lesser of the following amounts:

(a) the amount calculated in accordance with section 281;

(b) so much of the judgment debt as has not been satisfied by the supplier.

(3) If, in joint liability proceedings, a right conferred by section 282(3) is established by a consumer against a linked credit provider, the consumer must not receive the benefit of the right unless:

(a) judgment has been given against the supplier and credit provider; and
(b) a written demand has been made on the supplier for satisfaction of the judgment; and
(c) the demand has remained unsatisfied for at least 30 days.

(4) If the consumer can receive the benefit of a right conferred by section 282(3), the consumer may only receive the benefit to the extent of the lesser of the following amounts:
(a) the amount calculated in accordance with section 281;
(b) so much of the judgment debt as has not been satisfied by the supplier.

(5) Subsections (1) and (3) do not apply if:
(a) the supplier has been dissolved or the winding up of the supplier has commenced; or
(b) both of the following apply:
(i) in the opinion of the court in which the proceedings are taken, it is not reasonably likely that a judgment obtained against the supplier would be satisfied;
(ii) that court has, on the application of the consumer, declared that those subsections do not apply in relation to the proceedings.

(6) If a judgment given in joint liability proceedings is enforced against a linked credit provider of a supplier, the credit provider is subrogated to the extent of the enforced judgment to any rights that the consumer would have had but for the judgment against the supplier or any other person.

284 Award of interest to consumers

(1) If, in joint liability proceedings, judgment is given against the following (the defendant) for an amount of loss or damage:
(a) a supplier and a linked credit provider;
(b) a linked credit provider;
the court must, on the application of the consumer who suffered the loss or damage, award interest to the consumer against the defendant upon the whole or a part of the amount, unless good cause is shown to the contrary.

(2) The interest must be awarded from the time when the consumer became entitled to recover the amount until the date on which the judgment is given, at the greater of the following rates:
(a) if the amount payable by the consumer to the linked credit provider for obtaining credit in connection with the goods or services to which the proceedings relate may be calculated at a percentage rate per annum—that rate or, if more than one such rate may be calculated, the lower or lowest of those rates;
(b) 8%, or such other rate as is prescribed by the regulations.

(3) In determining whether good cause is shown against the awarding of interest under subsection (1), the court must take into account any payment made into court by the supplier or the linked credit provider.

(4) This section applies despite any other law.

285 Liability of suppliers to linked credit providers, and of linked credit providers to suppliers

(1) If a linked credit provider and supplier are liable, under section 278, to a consumer who is a party to a linked credit contract:

(a) if the liability relates to a supply of goods or services to which the linked credit contract relates—the supplier is liable to the credit provider for the amount of loss suffered by the credit provider, unless the supplier and credit provider otherwise agree; or
(b) if the liability relates to the linked credit contract—the credit provider is liable to the supplier for the amount of loss suffered by the supplier, unless the supplier and credit provider otherwise agree.

(2) The amount for which the supplier is liable under subsection (1)(a) of this section is an amount not exceeding the sum of the following amounts:

(a) the maximum amount of the linked credit provider’s liability under section 281;
(b) unless the court otherwise determines, the amount of costs (if any) reasonably incurred by the linked credit provider in defending the joint liability proceedings.
286 Joint liability proceedings and recovery under section 135 of the National Credit Code

(1) If:

   (a) a consumer is seeking, in joint liability proceedings, to recover an amount under section 279 in relation to a contract for the supply of goods or services; and

   (b) the contract has been rescinded or discharged (whether under this Schedule or any other law); and

   (c) as a result of the contract being rescinded or discharged, the consumer is entitled under section 135 of the National Credit Code to terminate a linked credit contract; and the following amounts may be recovered in the joint liability proceedings (to the extent that they have not been recovered under section 135 of the National Credit Code):

   (d) the consumer terminates the linked credit contract under that section;

   (e) any amount that the consumer is entitled under section 135 of the National Credit Code to recover from the credit provider under the linked credit contract;

   (f) any amount that the credit provider is entitled under section 135 of the National Credit Code to recover from:

      (i) the consumer; or

      (ii) if the supplier under the contract for the supply of goods or services is a party to the joint liability proceedings—the supplier.

(2) An amount that is recovered under subsection (1) ceases to be recoverable under section 135 of the National Credit Code.
Division 2—Non-linked credit contracts

287 Liability of suppliers and credit providers relating to non-linked credit contracts

(1) If a consumer who is a party to a non-linked credit contract suffers loss or damage as a result of a failure to comply with a guarantee that applies, under section 54, 55, 56, 57, 60, 61 or 62, in relation to a supply to which the contract relates, the credit provider who is a party to the contract is not under any liability to the consumer for the amount of the loss or damage.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the consumer from recovering that amount by action against the supplier of the goods or services to which the contract relates.

(3) If a consumer who is a party to a non-linked credit contract suffers loss or damage as a result of a breach of a warranty that is implied in the contract by section 12ED of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001, the supplier of the goods or services to which the contract relates is not under any liability to the consumer for the amount of the loss or damage.

(4) Subsection (3) does not prevent the consumer from recovering that amount by action against the credit provider who is a party to the contract.

(5) A non-linked credit contract is a contract that a consumer enters into with a credit provider for the provision of credit in relation to:

(a) the supply by way of sale, lease, hire or hire-purchase of goods to the consumer where:

(i) a person (the supplier) supplies the goods, or the causes the goods to be supplied, to the credit provider; and

(ii) the credit provider is not a linked credit provider of the supplier; and

(iii) prior negotiations or arrangements in relation to the acquisition of the goods were conducted or made with the consumer by or on behalf of the supplier; and

(iv) the credit provider did not take physical possession of the goods before they were delivered to the consumer; or
(b) the supply of services to the consumer by a person in relation to whom the credit provider is not a linked credit provider.
